Lt. Governor Kinder Celebrates National Day of Prayer

JEFFERSON CITY – Lt. Governor Peter Kinder today joined with citizens across Missouri to celebrate the 57th Annual National Day of Prayer. Lt. Governor Kinder spoke at a celebration of the event at the state capitol.

“We celebrate today the blessing that we have been given,” Lt. Governor Kinder said. “Among those, we live in a country where we not only have the opportunity to worship and pray freely, but where those rights have been protected in our constitution.”

The National Day of Prayer was signed into law as an annual event in 1952. In 1988, President Reagan designating for the National Day of Prayer to take place on the first Thursday in May.
