Lt. Governor Peter Kinder To Speak at Missouri End-of-Life Coalition Policy Summit in Jefferson City

Lt. Gov. Kinder to address group as Senior Advocate

Jefferson City- Missouri Lieutenant Governor Peter Kinder, will be speaking Thursday morning to the Missouri End-of-Life Policy Summit, being held in Jefferson City. The summit is being held at the Ramada Inn in Jefferson City. He will also participate in a press briefing prior to the summit.

“End of life issues surrounds us every day. Society over the years has often make the issue taboo”, said Kinder. He added, “I believe that now is the time for open, informed and caring discussion and action regarding end of life issues.”

Ann Corley, Missouri End-of-Life Executive Administrator thanked Lt. Governor Kinder for his involvement. “We are grateful that Lt. Governor Kinder is a leader on this issue and is participating in this summit” said Corley. She also said, “We look forward to working with the Lt. Governor on these issues that affect us all.”

By statute, the Lt. Governor is the Official Senior Advocate for the State of Missouri. Lt. Governor Kinder also serves as the Chairman of the Missouri Senior Rx Board. His office is involved with numerous issues dealing with seniors, including Elderly Abuse, prescription drug coverage as well as end of life issues facing Missouri Seniors.
